Many Thanks

Thank you for your love, friendship, prayers and your expressions of kindness, both before and after the passing of our beloved Delores.

Although our hearts are heavy, our joy is indeed full. Even in the most difficult of her days, Delores refused to allow her joy to be stolen. The joy of the Lord was always her strength; strength she used to face every battle.

She was truly satisfied and happy living at LBV. She often said she would never want to live anywhere else. The time she was able to be involved in the music ministry of the LBV Fellowship Church was a very enjoyable time for her. She loved her choir!

Simply said, we love her so much and we know life without her will be difficult. Thank you for standing with us during this time and the days ahead.

Bill Duck Family

I would like to thank everyone for all their kindness to me this summer. Starting with all the food delivered to my door before I left LBV as well as all the love that was shown to me in prayers, caring words and touching cards.

I thank God everyday for showing me the way to Lake Bonnet and filling my Florida home with so many of His angels.

Senior Moments

An elderly couple had a dinner at another couple's house and after eating, the wives left the table and went into the kitchen. The two gentlemen were talking and one said, "Last night we went out to a new restaurant and it was really great...I would recommend it very highly."

The other man said, "What is the name of the restaurant?" The first man thought and thought and finally said, "What is the name of that flower you give to someone you love? You know...the one that is red and has thorns?"

"Do you mean a rose?"

"Yes, that's the one," replied the man. He then turned towards the kitchen and yelled, "Rose, what's the name of that restaurant we went to last night?"

A man was telling his neighbor, "I just bought a new hearing aid. It cost me four thousand dollars, but it's state of the art...It's perfect!"

"Really" answered the neighbor. "What kind is it?"

"Twelve thirty..."

Now....Thoughts To Remember

Friendship is the only cement that will hold the world together.

No duty is more urgent than that of returning thanks.

We don't quit playing because we grow old—we grow old because we quit playing.

From the seeds of our mistakes grow the fruits of wisdom and good judgement.

The values we leave in our children are more important than the valuables we leave them.

There is no legacy as rich as integrity.

Be exact in business, generous in friendship.

Those who would choose friends over fortune know true wealth.

Turn a stumbling block in your path into a stepping stone to success.

Consider that you're really too blessed to be stressed.

Growing older can be a wonderful adventure if you remember that the important word is "growing".

Yesterday is but today's memory and tomorrow is today's dream.

It's easier to grow old if we're neither bored or boring.

Friendship fills up all those little ruts in life's road.

The road to progress is up and down—but higher with each climb.
